Pawar quits as NCP chief, then agrees to ‘rethink’

ARCHIS MOHAN
New Delhi, 2 May

Veteran politician Sharad Pawar shocked Nationalist Congress Party (NCP) workers on Tuesday afternoon, saying it was time he stepped down as president of the party that he founded almost 24 years ago.

If Pawar intended to spark a show of loyalty from party workers, the move had the desired effect. Party MLAs threatened to quit the Maharashtra Assembly, other party functionaries resigned from their party posts, and senior leaders, including MLA Jayant Patil, broke down when Pawar read out his decision at a function in Mumbai to release his updated autobiography.

By evening, the 83-year-old leader sought a few days to “rethink” after daughter Supriya Sule, nephew Ajit Pawar, and other senior leaders met him and suggested that he remain the president and appoint a working president under him. According to Ajit Pawar, Sharad Pawar said he would rethink only if workers, who had been protesting, go home and resignations cease.

Observers of Maharashtra politics, such as journalist Nikhil Wagle, termed Pawar’s resignation a “masterstroke” that should quell the putative move by Ajit, who runs the party organisation, to align with the BJP since the sympathy of party workers and MLAs was now with his uncle. However, a party source rejected this speculation, arguing that Ajit has already ruled out going with the BJP and that only the MVA alliance can offer him the CM’s post.

Senior journalist Anant Bagaitkar, who has tracked Pawar’s career closely for decades, said Pawar’s threat to resign is with an eye on the upcoming electoral challenges — not just the 2024 Lok Sabha elections but also the Maharashtra Assembly polls. “Campaigning for the Lok Sabha polls will start in earnest in six months, and the challenge is to keep party workers and leaders disciplined, united and galvanised,” he said. The term of the Maharashtra Assembly expires at the end of 2024. But the NCP leadership believes the state polls could take place, considering the precarious state of the Eknath Shinde-Devendra Fadnavis government, simultaneously with the Lok Sabha.

“I HAVE THREE YEARS OF RAJYA SABHA MEMBERSHIP LEFT, DURING WHICH I WILL FOCUS ON THE ISSUES RELATED TO MAHARASHTRA AND INDIA, WITH A CAVEAT OF NOT ACCEPTING ANY RESPONSIBILITY “

Pawar’s move comes on the heels of two key developments. Last month, the Election Commission stripped the NCP of its status as a ‘national party’. However, it was notable, Bagaitkar said, that Pawar’s announcement came a day after the Maharashtra agricultural produce marketing committees’ (APMCs) poll results, polling for which was held on April 28. The Maha Vikas Aghadi (MVA), comprising the NCP, Congress and Uddhav Thackeray’s Shiv Sena, won 76 of 131 bodies, while the ruling alliance bagged 31 committees. The APMC results show the ruling coalition is becoming unpopular and would struggle to retain its Lok Sabha and Assembly seats if the battle remains focused on local issues. It would prefer to contest on the back of Narendra Modi’s charisma, he said.

At the book launch, Pawar underlined the importance of May 1 in his life. He said May 1, 1960, was not only the day the Maharashtra state came into existence but also that of his joining public life, and it was time to “step back” after 63 years. But Tuesday’s episode is reminiscent of another day in May, nearly a quarter-century back in Pawar’s life.

At the Congress Working Committee meeting of May 15, 1999, Pawar flagged the issue of Sonia Gandhi’s “foreign origin”. She resigned as the Congress president triggering a massive show of loyalty. In his autobiography, On My Terms, Pawar wrote that “the hysterical exhibition of loyalty and support to 10 Janpath continued for a full week”, and the police advised him not to venture near the party office lest irate Congress workers physically assault him. Sonia Gandhi reconsidered her resignation. The Congress suspended Pawar and his colleagues, and he founded the NCP on June 10, 1999.

Will roll back 12-hr shift, fix wages for gig workers: Cong

Karnataka polls: Party vows action on outfits like Bajrang Dal, PFI

ARCHIS MOHAN
New Delhi, 2 May

In its manifesto for the Karnataka assembly polls released on Tuesday, the Congress pledged to withdraw the Basavaraj Bommai-led BJP government’s amendment to the Factories Act that increased the working hours to 12. The Congress committed to reserving 80 per cent of jobs in the state for locals, including in the private sector.

If elected, the Congress promised to set up a gig workers’ welfare board with ₹3,000 crore as seed money for a revolving fund and mandate a minimum hourly wage for all gig and unorganised sector workers in domestic and personal care, logistics, food delivery, e-pharmacy and transportation, the 62-page manifesto said.

The Congress manifesto enraged the Sangh Parivar for drawing a parallel between the Bajrang Dal and the Popular Front of India, vowing “decisive action” on outfits that spread religious or caste hatred. Vishva Hindu Parishad’s (VHP’s) Surendra Jain said it was unfortunate that the Congress compared a “patriotic organisation” with the PFI, a banned terror outfit.

The BJP released its 48-page “vows” on Monday, and, comparing the two documents, suggested significant consensus among the two principal players on social welfare despite Prime Minister Narendra Modi dubbing the Congress “five guarantees” as “revdi culture” that will “submerge the state in debt”.

In Bengaluru on Tuesday, Congress leader P Chidambaram shot back: “If the BJP announces something, it is ‘welfare’, and when the Congress does, it is ‘revdi’.”

Both the BJP and the Congress have promised to increase the incentive to dairy farmers from ₹5 per litre to ₹7. The BJP, brushing aside the recent Congress allegations that the Amul milk cooperative could usurp Karnataka’s Nandini, pledged half a litre of “Nandini milk” daily to below-poverty-line (BPL) families. “We will not allow anyone to destroy the existence of our pride Nandini,” the manifesto said.

It has assured credit cards with a limit of ₹50,000 to dairy farmers and to procure cow and buffalo dung at ₹3 per kg from them. Not just the BJP, the Congress has also committed to financial assistance for pilgrimages, money for restoring temples and maths, including a ₹5,000-monthly honorarium to priests above 60 years of all religions.

Prime Minister Narendra Modi on Tuesday hit out at the Congress for promising to take decisive action against Bajrang Dal in its manifesto. Addressing a rally in Vijayanagara, the PM said: “I am fortunate that I got the opportunity to pay my obeisance to the land of Hanuman but see the misfortune that when I have come to pay my respect to Hanuman’s land, at the same time, Congress has decided to lock up Lord Hanuman.” “Initially, they locked up Prabhu Shri Ram (Lord Ram). And now they want to lock up people who say Jai Bajrang Bali,” he said. Meanwhile, the Congress accused the PM of hurting religious sentiments of devotees by equating Lord Hanuman with the Bajrang Dal, and demanded an apology from him

If the BJP pledged free bus passes for 3 million organised sector women workers and girl students, the Congress has promised free travel to all women, students and senior citizens and free bus and rail travel to those appearing for competitive exams. The BJP said it has allocated ₹1,000 crore for free bus passes to 3 million women and ₹350 crore for girl students in the 2023-24 Budget.

Last year, the BJP government increased free power to poor SC and ST households to 75 units. The Congress has promised 200 free units to all houses. The Congress has pledged 10 kg free foodgrains to BPL families, while the BJP has promised five. The Congress has promised ₹3,000 monthly stipend for two years to unemployed graduates, ₹2,000 every month to all women heads of the family and ₹1 lakh one-time allowance to barbers.

CRIMINAL DEFAMATION CASE

No stay on Rahul conviction

Gujarat HC verdict after vacation

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA
Ahmedabad, 2 May

The Gujarat High Court on Tuesday refused to grant interim relief to Congress leader Rahul Gandhi on his plea for stay of conviction in a criminal defamation case over his “Modi surname” remark, saying it will pass its final order post-summer vacation.

The court of Justice

Hemant Prachchhak, however, said no interim protection can be granted at this stage.

Justice Prachchhak said he will pass a final order only after going through the records and proceedings, and posted the matter for verdict after reopening of the HC post-summer vacation, which will be from May 8 to June 3.

Advocate Nirupam Nanavati, who appeared for Gujarat BJP MLA Purnesh Modi also opposed Singhvi’s prayer for interim relief to the disqualified Lok Sabha MP.

Not named as accused by ED in excise policy case: Chadha

AAP MP Raghav Chadha on Tuesday said media reports that claimed he has been named as an accused in a charge sheet filed by ED in a Delhi excise policy-linked case were “factually wrong”. In a supplementary charge sheet filed in a money-laundering case linked to the excise policy, ED has accused AAP of using a part of the ₹100-crore kickbacks allegedly received from a ‘south group’ liquor lobby to meet its Goa poll spend.

Not just the BJP, the Congress has also committed to financial assistance for pilgrimages, money for restoring temples and maths, including a ₹5,000-monthly honorarium to priests above 60 years of all religions.

If the BJP pledged free bus passes for 3 million organised sector women workers and girl students, the Congress has promised free travel to all women, students and senior citizens and free bus and rail travel to those appearing for competitive exams. The BJP said it has allocated ₹1,000 crore for free bus passes to 3 million women and ₹350 crore for girl students in the 2023-24 Budget.

Last year, the BJP government increased free power to poor SC and ST households to 75 units. The Congress has promised 200 free units to all houses. The Congress has pledged 10 kg free foodgrains to BPL families, while the BJP has promised five. The Congress has promised ₹3,000 monthly stipend for two years to unemployed graduates, ₹2,000 every month to all women heads of the family and ₹1 lakh one-time allowance to barbers.

CRIMINAL DEFAMATION CASE

No stay on Rahul conviction

Gujarat HC verdict after vacation

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA
Ahmedabad, 2 May

The Gujarat High Court on Tuesday refused to grant interim relief to Congress leader Rahul Gandhi on his plea for stay of conviction in a criminal defamation case over his “Modi surname” remark, saying it will pass its final order post-summer vacation.

Counsel for Gandhi,

Abhishek Manu Singhvi, cited “extreme urgency” to request from the court for an interim or a final order after arguments from both sides concluded during the day.

The court of Justice

Hemant Prachchhak, however, said no interim protection can be granted at this stage.

Justice Prachchhak said he will pass a final order only after going through the records and proceedings, and posted the matter for verdict after reopening of the HC post-summer vacation, which will be from May 8 to June 3.

Advocate Nirupam Nanavati, who appeared for Gujarat BJP MLA Purnesh Modi also opposed Singhvi’s prayer for interim relief to the disqualified Lok Sabha MP.

Not named as accused by ED in excise policy case: Chadha

AAP MP Raghav Chadha on Tuesday said media reports that claimed he has been named as an accused in a charge sheet filed by ED in a Delhi excise policy-linked case were “factually wrong”. In a supplementary charge sheet filed in a money-laundering case linked to the excise policy, ED has accused AAP of using a part of the ₹100-crore kickbacks allegedly received from a ‘south group’ liquor lobby to meet its Goa poll spend.
